

Individual should have the right to not receive unwelcome phone soliciations.
The individual should be able to choose the right of the do not call list to be inforced. The CBA needs to respect those who are on the list and not call. If we want to do business with these respected companies then we will make contact.